Background and History of In Touch Ministries

The history of In Touch Ministries is deeply intertwined with the life and ministry of Dr. Charles Stanley. Born in 1932, Dr. Stanley grew up in a Christian home and felt called to ministry at a young age. He attended the University of Richmond and later earned his theology degree from Luther Rice Seminary. Dr. Stanley began his pastoral ministry in the 1950s and eventually became the senior pastor of First Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia. It was during his time at First Baptist that Dr. Stanley started In Touch Ministries, with the goal of taking the Gospel to a wider audience through radio and television broadcasts. Over the years, the ministry has expanded to include a wide range of resources, including the In Touch devotional, which has become one of its most popular and enduring publications.

Today, In Touch Ministries is a global organization, with a presence in over 150 countries and a reach that extends to millions of people. The ministry's programs and resources are designed to help believers grow in their faith and to introduce non-believers to the Gospel. From daily devotionals to television broadcasts, In Touch Ministries is committed to spreading the message of Jesus Christ to a world in need. Dr. Stanley's vision for the ministry has remained consistent over the years: to lead people into a growing relationship with Jesus Christ and to strengthen the local church.

The Vision and Mission of In Touch Ministries

The vision of In Touch Ministries is to lead people into a growing relationship with Jesus Christ and to strengthen the local church. This vision is rooted in Dr. Stanley's belief that the local church is the backbone of Christian ministry and that believers should be actively involved in their local church. The ministry's mission is to spread the Gospel and to disciple believers, using a variety of methods and resources to reach people where they are. Whether through radio and television broadcasts, daily devotionals, or other publications, In Touch Ministries is committed to helping people understand and apply biblical truths to their lives.

A key part of the ministry's mission is its commitment to evangelism and discipleship. Dr. Stanley believes that every believer has a responsibility to share the Gospel with others and to help new believers grow in their faith. The In Touch devotional is just one tool that the ministry uses to accomplish this mission, providing readers with a daily dose of biblical teaching and encouragement. By focusing on the basics of Christianity and addressing real-life issues, the devotional helps readers deepen their faith and live out their beliefs in practical ways.
