Voter Registration and Eligibility in Pierce County

Understanding the voter registration process and eligibility criteria is fundamental to participating in elections within Pierce County. The county follows Washington State's election laws, which allow residents to register online, by mail, or in person. Ensuring registration before the deadline is critical for casting a ballot in any given election.

Registration Requirements

To register to vote in Pierce County, individuals must be U.S. citizens, residents of Washington State, and at least 18 years old by Election Day. Registration is open to those who meet these criteria, including individuals who have not voted before. It is important to update voter information if moving within the county or changing names.

How to Register and Update Voter Information

Voters can complete their registration through multiple methods designed for accessibility:

- Online registration via the Washington Secretary of State's website

- Mail-in registration forms available at libraries and government offices
- In-person registration at the Pierce County Elections Office

Additionally, voters are encouraged to verify their registration status before each election to avoid any issues at the polls.
